

Women's Groups delighted by the appointment of Ms Helen Conway as the new Director of the Equal Opportunity in the Workplace Agency (EOWA) economic Security4Women (eS4W), a National Women's Alliance congratulates Ms Helen Conway for her appointment as the new Director of Equal Opportunity for Women in the Workplace Agency (EOWA).

The Chair of eS4W, Ms Kate Gunn, representing over 100,000 Australian women, is very enthusiastic about this appointment: "Ms Conway's very impressive corporate experience will provide a doorway for women in the workplace, and will be vital to achieving economic equality between women and men in the Australian working environment."

"We are delighted that someone with Ms Helen Conway's exceptional professional and legal credentials has accepted this position. Ms Conway's responsibilities in her previous role included being the General Manager of the Office of the CEO, Company Secretary and General Counsel for the Caltex Australia Group. Ms Conway will bring a wealth of experience to the role of Director at EOWA." said Kate Gunn.

"We are very excited that EOWA will now have an very strong alliance with the business sector and continue their mission to further create workplaces where women's contribution is equally valued, recognised and rewarded." said Kate.

economic Security4Women (eS4W) is one of six National Women's Alliances funded by the Australian Government through the Office for Women, Department of Families, Community Services and Indigenous Affairs. eS4W believes that economic wellbeing and financial security are essential ingredients to achieving equity for all women. The ability to achieve positive economic outcomes impacts on all aspects of women's lives including their family, education, health, employment, retirement, housing and personal safety and can enable women to make informed choices.

ENDS

For more information contact Kate Gunn on 0411 466080.